She said that they have a video on the campaign.

-Villarin said that they also have a resolution to present.

VIII. Old Business
- There was no Old Business this week.
IX. New Business

*Approval of Membership Contract with USSA

-Kaczmarek said that he handed out a document on why the EVP office is recommending membership in USSA. He said that the second document is the contract itself. He said that the contract has been submitted to UCLA and ASUCLA already. He said that UCLA has had a long history of involvement with USSA. He said that they have a history of advancing student rights. He said that approving the membership would entail three things. He said that it would affirm the collection of the Student Voice Referendum, it would affirm the contract between USAC and USSA and it would direct the Student Government Accounting to devote the membership to this contract. He said that this contract would be for $25,000 a year, which is the basic level for universities of UCLA’s size. He said that it would provide USAC with membership in USSA for four years. He said that after four years it would be reviewed and renewed.

-Kaczmarek moved and Nguyen seconded to approve the Membership Contract with USSA.
-McKesey asked if there was any discussion.
-Husse-Jerome asked if the term of the contract has been four years in the past as well.
-Kaczmarek said that the last contract, which the regents denied, was for four years.
-Ambrosio asked if there are other national student organizations.
-Kaczmarek said that there are, but that they are more topic specific. He said that there are no other groups that deal with general student issues on the level that USSA does.
-Williams asked if a one-year contract was feasible. He said that that there isn’t much room to get out of a four-year contract. He asked what would happen if USAC totally disagreed with USSA one year.

-Kaczmarek said that the member organizations vote on the action agenda items. He said that UCLA has a strong presence in USSA and that it is unlikely that UCLA will ever totally disagree with USSA’s action agenda.
-Williams asked who wrote the contract.
-Kaczmarek said that it is the standard USSA contract with certain provisions that have been made for UCLA. He said that it is the same contract as four years ago.
-Husse-Jerome asked if there would be any way to pull out of the contract if UCLA ever decides it would like to.
-Kaczmarek said that they would probably have to wait until the contract expires. He said that it would be better to work for change from within the organization. He said that it is better for USAC to be in a long-term contract because it makes USSA more responsive to UCLA needs.
-McKesey said that it is important that UCLA add their voice to USSA to give the organization credibility.
-Chiang said that she doesn’t see how a long-term contract is beneficial. She asked what would happen if UCLA’s enrollment were to drop below 20,000.
-Kaczmarek said that UCLA has been involved in the organization for 55 years. He said that if UCLA’s enrollment were to drop the contract would have to be renegotiated. He said that he thinks a long-term contract is important because it shows that UCLA supports USSA. He said that those groups that have a long-term outlook tend to be more productive.
-Nelson said that he thinks that it is important to think of this in the context of other schools that rely on the clout of UCLA to back this organization. He said that a four year contract is a gamble that has to be taken.
-There being no further discussion, Council voted to approve the Membership Contract with USSA motion with 10 votes in favor, 0 against and 1 abstention.

-Kaczmarek said that he does not have the resolutions because of a mix up at Pulse. He said that he would pass around a collection sheet to place an advertisement in the Daily Bruin. He said that the next Council can vote on the resolutions.

Resolution in Support of California’s Rehabilitation Camps For Incarcerated Youth
-Ambrosio said that he became aware of this issue during the last Day of Action. He said that this is separate from the Prisons vs. Schools debate. He said that the Governor’s budget would close rehabilitation plants and send their occupants to higher security sites. He said that it would shut down one Community Service Commission site. He said that they want to encourage people to come back and become productive members of society, not just lock them away.

-Ambrosio moved and Kozak seconded to approve the Resolution in Support of California’s Rehabilitation Camps for Incarcerated Youth.
-McKesey said that one in three Black or Brown youth will be incarcerated by the age of 20. She said that it is important to understand the efforts of the rehabilitation camps.

-Chen said that it would as long as the ARC is appointed in time.
-Wynn moved and Husse-Jerome seconded to extend the Presidential Appointments Application deadline until Friday at 5:00 pm.
-McKesey asked if there was any discussion. There being none, Council voted to approve the motion to extend the deadline with 11 votes in favor, 0 against and 0 abstentions.
