V. Appointments

Communications Board

- After announcing that her first nominee for the Communications Board was Jasmin Niku, Kaisey listed her reasons for choosing her.
- Cendana said that the Appointments Review Committee (ARC) had voted unanimously in favor of Niku for this position. He then read the ARC’s report.
- Price moved and Araabi seconded to approve the appointment of Jasmin Niku to the Communications Board.
- Council voted to approve the appointment of Jasmin Niku to the Communications Board with a vote of 10 in favor, 0 opposed, and 1 abstention.

- Kaisey announced that her second nominee for the Communications Board was Katya Balan. She said that, because of her extensive experience with various organizations on campus, Balan would bring an outsider’s perspective to the Comm Board.
- Cendana said that the ARC had voted 2-0-1 to recommend Balan and he then read their report.
- Zai moved and Schuster seconded to approve the appointment of Katya Balan to the Communications Board.
- Park asked for some specific examples of Balan’s outside experience.
- Balan replied that she had done Public Relations for a political campaign in Ventura County. She said that she had also done graphic design for her Mother’s firm. Balan mentioned that she was just in her first year at UCLA so didn’t have much on-campus experience yet. She added that she would be serving as Vice Chair of the Bruin Republicans and Co-Chair of a Pre-Law Society in the coming year.
- Saucedo asked what Balan would do to let students know about other ways to advertise programs and events than in the Daily Bruin.
- Balan replied that she would recommend on-line advertising, using list-servs, putting posters and signs along Bruin Walk, and handing out flyers on Bruin Walk.
- Saucedo asked if the ARC member who abstained from voting would comment on why they had abstained.
- Kaisey interjected that the process did not work that way, especially with an Abstention.
- The Question was Called. There being no objection to the Calling of the Question, Council moved to a vote.
- Council voted to approve the appointment of Katya Balan to the Communications Board with a vote of 7 in favor, 4 opposed, and 0 abstentions.

Zai arrived

ASUCLA Board of Directors
- Kaisey said that her first nominee for the ASUCLA Board of Directors was Dave Karlik. She said that the main reason she had selected Karlik was because of his involvement on the Hill with the Office of Residential Life. She said further that another reason for nominating him was because of his stated plan to increase the awareness of what the ASUCLA Board of Directors does by reaching out to students all around the campus. She said that he also wanted to continue the outreach to the students on South Campus that was started this year.
- Cendana said that the ARC had voted 2-0-1 on Karlik’s nomination, and then he read their report.
- Schuster moved and Zai seconded to appoint Dave Karlik to the ASUCLA Board of Directors
- Malik asked Karlik about his specific plans for outreach.
- Karlik replied that he knows a lot of University Administrators, and is currently a Resident Assistant. He said he plans to attend OCHC meetings and other committee meetings on the Hill.
- Williams asked Karlik, if he were to be approved by Council, would he be able to attend the ASUCLA Board Retreat. Karlik said that he would definitely attend the Retreat.
- Saucedo asked Karlik what distinguishes him from others on the Hill. Karlik replied that he was well known on the Hill, that he had three years of experience participating in Student Government on the Hill and that he attends many programs on the Hill.
- Malik said that her knowledge of Karlik is that he is difficult to work with, difficult to communicate with and is irresponsible.
- Saucedo asked Karlik what programs he had helped to implement. Karlik replied that he had worked on programs for his floor, a Karaoke night and had worked on some Financial Supports Commission programs to support the Scholarship Resource Center. He said that he had distributed flyers for CSC’s Community Service Day.
- Schuster asked Karlik what his ideas were for South Campus. Karlik said that he had recently transferred into the School of Engineering and would like to see more outreach to South Campus because many South Campus students that he has talked with don’t know anything about the ASUCLA Board and what it does. Karlik said that one of the specific things that he planned to do was to get input from South Campus students on what they think about the construction plans for the South Campus Student Center.

- Sargent asked Karlik what he thought were the major issues facing ASUCLA today. Karlik replied that he thought it was important to not have a stance or a bias without knowing all the facts. He said he did know that Student Media is running a deficit, that he knows about the plan for the Greening of Lu Valle Commons, that they are working on a better security system for the Bookstore and that the Food Service Master Plan includes a facility to serve beer and wine.

- Kaisey said, if there was no objection, she would like to move to the vote. There being no objection, Council moved to the vote on Karlik’s nomination.

- Council voted to approve the appointment of Dave Karlik to the ASUCLA Board of Directors with a vote of 6 in favor, 4 opposed, and 2 abstentions.

- Kaisey announced that her next nominee for the ASUCLA Board of Directors was Jason Sorger. She mentioned some of his strengths for this position including his fiduciary experience as treasurer for Hillel and his extensive knowledge about UCLA energy costs.

- Cendana said that ARC was recommending Sorger with a vote of 2-0-1, and he then read the ARC evaluation.

- Schuster moved and Araabi seconded to appoint Jason Sorger to the ASUCLA Board of Directors.

- Williams asked Sorger, if he is appointed to the Board, did he plan to come to the Retreat. Sorger said that he had already changed his plans so that he could attend the Retreat if he was appointed to the Board.

- Saucedo said he was concerned that Sorger’s application was five pages long, even though it stated clearly on the application that applicants were to limit their comments to two pages. He said he was concerned about Sorger’s inability to follow directions. Saucedo then questioned Sorger on his advocacy experience. Sorger replied that, as Treasurer of Hillel, he had talked with hundreds of students who held diverse opinions. He said that he had met with leaders of the Queer community regarding their issues. He said that he would represent a broad constituency of UCLA students.

- Doria said he thought that the emphasis should be on questioning nominees about the qualifications they have which are relevant to the position for which they have applied. He said he thought it was unfair and inappropriate to ask about their personal stances.

- Saucedo said he thought that Kaisey should have thrown out Sorger’s application because he wrote more than others were allowed to write. He said that this was not fair.

- Kaisey said she forwarded Sorger because she believed he would do an excellent job on the ASUCLA Board of Directors. She said she thought that the discussion about the number of pages he had submitted was somewhat petty and said she felt that one such fault certainly did not outweigh his many strengths.

- Sargent said he thought it was very important for the Board members to understand the structure of ASUCLA. He asked Sorger what the entities of ASUCLA were. Sorger responded that the responsibility of the Board was to meet the needs of the students by providing quality services at fair prices and that one of the most important services was providing textbooks. He said that another important issue was to provide space for student organizations.

- Saucedo indicated that he had further questions for Sorger.

- Doria made a Point of Order by stating that Saucedo had already spoken twice and that, under Robert’s Rules of Order, he was not allowed to speak more than that.

- Zai said that Sorger had been interviewed extensively at the ARC hearing. She said she felt that he had strength in several important areas, specifically fiscal knowledge, open-mindedness, enthusiasm and initiative. With regard to the comments about the number of pages Sorger had submitted with his application, Zai said she felt that the attack was unfair.

- Park yielded her time to Saucedo.
- Saucedo said he believed that Sorger had engaged in dirty politics. Kaisey said she had not heard anything about this concern prior to the meeting, and said she thought it was inappropriate to bring it up at this time.
- Cendana moved to Call the Question by General Consensus. The motion was seconded by Price.
- Dehar objected to approval by General Consensus, so Council voted on the Calling of the Question.
- Council approved the motion to Call the Question with a vote of 8 in favor, 3 opposed and 1 abstention.
- Council then voted on the motion to approve the appointment of Jason Sorger to the ASUCLA Board of Directors. The motion was approved with a vote of 7 in favor, 1 opposed, and 4 abstentions.
- Williams asked which of the two Board appointees would be the voting member and which the non-voting.
- Kaisey said she would let Williams know.

Student Health Advisory Committee (SHAC)
- Araabi moved and Zai seconded to approve Simon Shamass to the Student Health Advisory Committee (SHAC)

He said he felt there was a need for student presence at the Ashe Center to represent the AIDS issue. He said he established lines of communication.
- Araabi said he was really impressed with Shamass’ experience as well as with his involvement concerning health issues for all students.
- Cendana Called the Question, seconded by Schuster.
- Council approved the Calling of the Question with a vote of 11 in favor, 1 opposed, and 0 abstentions.
- Council voted to approve the motion to appoint Simon Shamass to the Student Health Advisory Committee (SHAC) with a vote of 10 in favor, 0 opposed, and 2 abstentions.
- Kaisey presented her second nominee for SHAC, Tina Cheng by speaking about her strengths. She said that Cheng was just what SHAC asked for in that she is very qualified and very enthusiastic.
- Cendana said that ARC had voted to approve Cheng with a unanimous vote of 3-0-0. He then read the ARC evaluation.
- Cendana moved and Araabi seconded, to approve the appointment of Tina Cheng to the Student Health Advisory Committee (SHAC).
- Council voted to approve the motion to appoint Tina Cheng to the Student Health Advisory Committee (SHAC) with a vote of 11 in favor, 0 opposed and 1 abstention.

- Park moved and Araabi seconded to appoint Maryanne Cabrera to the position of Budget Review Director
- Kaisey said that she was bringing Cabrera forward in response to Council’s request that she appoint someone who had served on the Budget Review Committee or the Finance Committee in the past and, therefore, had relevant experience.
- Cendana said that ARC had voted unanimously in favor of Cabrera, and then read their evaluation.
- Sargent asked about Cabrera’s availability during the summer months because of the importance of this position and the need to handle certain budgetary matters during the Summer. Cabrera said she would immediately appoint an Assistant Budget Review Director who could serve in her place when she was not available.
- There being no further questions, Council moved to a vote.
- Council voted to approve the motion to appoint Maryanne Cabrera to the position of Budget Review Director with a vote of 11 in favor, 0 opposed and 1 abstention.
At this point in the meeting, Andy Green, Member of the ASUCLA Board of Directors, announced that Shaun Doria and Joline Price both had Birthdays this week. Campus Programs Committee (CPC)
- Kaisey said that her first nominee for the Campus Programs Committee was Sean Canullas. She said that Canullas had served on CPC last year and, therefore, would bring experience to the committee. She said further that, as Samahang Pilipino Cultural Night Director and Asian Pacific Coalition External Director, Canullas has had experience with almost every funding source.
- Cendana said that the ARC had voted to approve Canullas with a vote of 2-0-1. He explained that the abstention occurred because one of the ARC members was not able to be there for the entire hearings and so did not have sufficient information to vote.
- Araabi moved and Park seconded to approve Sean Canullas to the Campus Programs Committee (CPC).
- Council voted to approve Sean Canullas to the Campus Programs Committee (CPC) with a unanimous vote of 12 in favor, 0 opposed and 0 abstentions.

- Kaisey announced that her second appointee to CPC was Gabriel Rose. - Zai moved and Cendana seconded to approve Gabriel Rose to the Campus Programs Committee (CPC).
- Saucedo asked Rose what he would do on CPC to improve the process.
- Rose replied that he thought one of the most important things he could do was to uphold the CPC guidelines to ensure that funding is fairly allocated to all student organizations that apply.
- Cendana Called the Question, seconded by Doria. There being no objections to Calling the Question Council moved to a vote.
- Council voted to approve Gabriel Rose to the Campus Programs Committee (CPC) with a unanimous vote of 12 in favor, 0 opposed and 0 abstentions.

Office Space Allocation Committee (OSAC) Chair
- Kaisey began by saying that last year’s Facilities Commissioner, Joseph Vardner, had revitalized the Office Space Allocation Committee (OSAC). She said one of the major changes he had recommended was to have the Chair of OSAC be an appointed position rather than having the Facilities Commissioner automatically designated to serve as the OSAC Chairperson.
- Kaisey said that Mizzell was very fair, sticks to his convictions, and is amazing at organization and administration. She said that she had full confidence in his abilities.
- Cendana said that ARC had voted in favor of Mizzell with a vote of 2-0-1.
- Schuster moved and Doria seconded to approve Jason Mizzell as Chair of the Office Space Allocation Committee.
