   There were no public comments this week.

V. Special Presentations

   A. Local Services Production Initiative- Steven Li from the Rosemead City Council

   Li discussed the wide scale impact of the budget cuts. The League of California Cities has launched an initiative to combat the shifting of the state deficit to local governments, and is gathering signatures to protect local money. He visited the meeting with the intention of gaining support from the council.

   B. University of California Student Association (UCSA) Presentation—Jaclyn Feldstein
Feldstein is a graduate of UC Santa Barbara, and attended the meeting on behalf of UCSA. The mission statement of the organization is to create greater access to public higher education for all Californians by empowering current and future students to advocate on their own behalf for the accessibility, affordability, and quality of the University of California education system. Feldstein discussed the structure of the organization, and note that all students of dues-paying campuses are members of UCSA. The Board of Directors is made up of one voting board member from each campus. The main issues for 2009-2010 were working to preserve the Cal Grant, and to improve the Graduate Student Health Insurance Plan (GSHIP). Feldstein said students need UCSA to promote a unified voice on system-wide issues and to pool resources and information. Feldstein discussed how to become more involved with UCSA, and urged council members to do so.

VI. Appointments

A. Jessica Smith (Judicial Board)

- Bawa moved and Farmer seconded to table the approval of Smith until her arrival, there were no objections.

- Bawa said that Jessica Smith exemplified being a very strong and articulate candidate for the Judicial Board, and demonstrated ability to be unbiased. She added that Smith received an unanimous recommendation from the ARC. Bawa moved and Banani seconded to approve the appointment of Jessica Smith to the Judicial Board.

- Mullins asked Smith to describe her experience and beliefs.
- Smith is a political science major with a focus in studies in pre-law, and said that she has a deep understanding of rules and procedures of the system.
- Nguyen asked how she would handle a situation in which there may be the potential for bias.
- Smith understands the possibility that she might be familiar with a situation or an individual involved in a hearing, and will exercise her fair judgment if such a case arises.
- Mullins asked if she would abstain in such instances.
- Smith said that she would abstain only if asked by the Judicial Board as a body, acknowledging the importance of every member issuing a vote.
- Tressel mentioned that other members of the Judicial Board would also be hesitant to refuse judgment.
- Mullins asked if she would vote in a situation of potential conflict of interest.
- Smith said that she would step down if such a case arose.
- Farmer moved and Li seconded to call to question. There were no objections.
- Council voted unanimously to approve the appointment of Smith to the Judicial Board for the upcoming year.

B. Daniel Gaytan (CS Mini-Board)

- Bawa said that Gaytan proved to be very experienced with the CS Mini-Board. He was also very poised and prepared for the interview. She said that Gaytan received a unanimous recommendation from ARC. Bawa moved and Farmer seconded to approve the appointment of Daniel Gaytan to the CS Mini-Board.

- Nguyen asked to describe any experience with community service projects.
- Gaytan’s main community service involvement at UCLA has been through MECHA.
- Tengco asked Gaytan to describe his vision for the committee.
- Gaytan would like to make the proceedings more organized.
- Mullins asked Gaytan to discuss his understanding of the diversity of the campus, and how he would make certain that all groups are represented equally.
- Gaytan said that he realizes any group can apply and will make certain to treat the funding of events equally, no matter what affiliation the groups may have.
- Flores asked to discuss his learning experience on the committee in the past, and to discuss what he would like to share with the committee in the future.
- Gaytan has learned how to represent UCLA on and off campus and how to facilitate the question and answer period within hearings, which he feels is a vital step in the interview process.
-Banani asked how Gaytan feels about the significant drop in capital funding for the CS Mini-Board, and how he would respond to working with a smaller fund.
-Gaytan said that the committee would need to work diligently to not exhaust funds early on in the year.
-Tressel asked to describe his organizational skills.
-He said that his time at UCLA has allowed him the opportunity to gain organizational skills, noting time management, in particular.
-Tressel asked Gaytan to refer directly to the CS Mini-Fund.
-Gaytan said punctuality would be a prime goal and he will share that concern with the entire committee.
-Council voted unanimously to approve Gaytan to the CS Mini-Fund with a total of 10 in favor, 0 in opposition, and 0 abstentions.
